Drive to Recruit Members of New Military Co. Ends Tonight—50 Already Enlisted.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., June 8.—The drive to recruit members of the new national guard company, which is being reorganized here, ends tonight. This morning about fifty of the sixty-five men sought had been secured by Lieut. John N. Brooks and his recruiting detail. Lieutenant Brooks will tonight report to Adjut. Gen. Milton A. Reckord as to the number of men secured and recommend that the company be mustered though sixty-five men may not have been secured. It is thought the other men can soon be secured.

Declaring that sufficient evidence had not been presented to reach a verdict, the coroner's jury investigating the death of Thomas Cunningham in an automobile accident on the Washington-Baltimore boulevard at Riverdale early last Friday morning last night postponed the hearing until next Tuesday.

I believe that no photodrama will ever be shown in this theater that surpasses in dramatic intensity and sensational scenes this great film version of Hal Red's famous stage play, "The Confession." You can see it twice, yes, three times and be impressed with its hugeness more and more.
